POLICE DEPARTMENT

Martin D. McParland, Chief of Police

“The Morris County Sheriff’s Office recently had several concerning calls from residents who were targeted in a phone scam. Callers posing as Sheriff’s Officers tell the would-be victim that they need to deliver money, or they will face immediate arrest. The scammers use actual Morris County Sheriff’s Officer names and the victim’s caller I.D. is manipulated to appear to be coming from the Morris County Sheriff’s Office.

Rockaway Twp. Police Department Chief Martin D. McParland and Morris County Sheriff James M. Gannon want to remind you NEVER to provide sensitive personal information, money, or access to your assets to any unknown individual. Also, please discuss this scam with family members who may be vulnerable to this type of crime.

If you have any questions about this reminder or need further guidance on these types of matters, please contact the Morris County Sheriff’s Office at 973-285-6600, or the Rockaway Twp. Police Department at 973-625-4000. Thank you.”
